

East Anglian Air Ambulance

Volunteer Role Description

Volunteer photographer

Why we need you

Join us in capturing memorable moments at charity events! You will join East Anglian Air Ambulance (EAAA) staff and volunteers to take photos of our amazing event participants both on route and at cheer points and post route locations.

You'll have the opportunity to make a positive impact with your photography skills, contribute to a local life-saving charity, and enhance the event experience for participants!

What you will be doing

We're looking for people with experience in and a love for photography – sports ideally, with an eye for capturing authentic event moments and experiences. You would be able to demonstrate technical capability, meet event requirements, and adhere to deadlines. Photography roles at events often involve roaming event sites for optimal image capture.

You'll be supported/briefed by the EAAA team to create visually compelling content to support our charity. If you're passionate about storytelling through photography and thrive in a dynamic environment, we want to hear from you!

We'll need you to share your images with EAAA for use after the events across a variety of channels, which could include social media and our printed publications, including our popular 'Lift Off' magazine for supporters.

The preferred image format is:

- RAW/ High resolution JPGs
- Minimum image size: 3:2, 3984x2656
- Processed + Deduped images preferred.

When you will be volunteering

This role is quite flexible, the days needed may vary as our events can be on any day of the week, so you can sign up to events that suit your schedule.
